

COOPRENET

YOUR NETWORK FOR A CLOSER
CONSUMER-PRODUCER LINK

Funded by the European Union

CORENET supports the systematic development of more effective advising on Short Food Supply Chains (SFSC) through a pan-European peer-to-peer learning network for SFSC practitioners.

KNOWLEDGE

An extensive knowledge repository

Skills and knowledge are available to help you advise on SFSC sustainability and performance.

COMMUNITY

A community enabling peer-to-peer sharing of knowledge

You will benefit from closer links to all stakeholders, from farm to fork. The community will equip you to better respond to the needs, institutional barriers, and opportunities in the field and contribute to regulations and policy recommendations.

ADVISING

An autonomous and viable learning network

An EU advising and support system to engage with other SFSC practitioners and operating SFSCs. Learn how to improve the SFSCs performance and increase their impact in all 27 EU member states.

IMPACTS

SCIENTIFIC

An EU-wide use of scientific knowledge through the SFSC advisory network.

SOCIETAL

Better inclusion of SFSCs in official Agricultural Knowledge and Innovation Systems (AKIS) to favour their up-scaling towards more inclusive, resilient, and sustainable food systems.

ECONOMIC

Consolidation of skills and the broadening of advisory services about SFSCs will benefit a larger diversity of end-users and SFSC sustainable models.

POLITICAL

More SFSC-friendly policies and regulatory frameworks across EU-27.

Be part of the chain and join the first European SFSC Advisory Network!
